

Program Coordinator Needed

StoriesWork, a non-profit organization in Durham, North Carolina, is seeking a creative, outgoing, computer-skilled Program Coordinator to work with the Executive Director in planning, administering and participating in interactive storytelling sessions for groups and individuals in need.

We hold workshops, staff training, support group sessions, and community education programs in diverse fields, for example, domestic violence, obesity, communication, aging, parenting, diversity, and more.

Interactive storytelling is a safe, non-judgmental, non-threatening technique that fosters empowerment, insight and improved decision-making. Qualifications: Good writing, speaking and computer skills; good telephone manner; imaginative thinking; interest in folklore and folktales. Fluency in Spanish a plus, but not required.

Part-time, 15 to 20 hours per week. Flexible hours. Salary to be determined. Resume and references requested.
